In continuation of my report No.33 of 30th ultimo I beg to state that the proceedings of the M.D.C.C.(Mysore Dt.Congress Committee) re the meeting held on 29-10-24 in the office hall of Mysore State Congress Committee was published in the Hindu of 31st ultimo and a cutting of the same is enclosed for kind perusal.

The Swarajya party have succeeded till 25-10-24 in taking 3000 signatures to the memorial to the Government praying for local option in the matter of anti-drink campaign.

I beg to report that the President of Central Muslim Defence Committee, Bangalore City, the Secretary and a member proceeded from Bangalore on receipt of a telegram on 21st ultimo from Mysore that Muslim Vellori was on hunger strike since 4 days and they interviewed him in the Mysore Jail. He said that he would break his fast if the Mahammadans (sunni) assured him by writing that they would not put up "Punjas" in the next Moharrum and that thereupon a general meeting was convened in Mysore. Many people signed Mutchalikas and wanted to meet him in the Jail on 23rd ultimo but learnt from the Deputy Commissioner that Muslim Vellori had been taken away to Bangalore Central Jail by motor. So they returned to Bangalore on the morning of 24th and saw him in the Central Jail here and showed him the Mutchalikas whereupon he broke his fast of a week. Mr. S. N. M. Kazvi had also gone to Mysore. He is also on the Defence Committee. Mr. Abbas Khan also went and saw Muslim Vellori that morning. It is now proposed that some of the leading Mahammadans should see the Dewan of Mysore re the release of Muslim Vellori.
